

Serge Pisapia
L.L.M., C.Med., C. Arb.

Lawyer
Chartered Mediator
Chartered Arbitrator

TEACHING & TRAINING

2006 à 2019

1. Three (3) hour course on “ADR as a tool for project management” given with Mrs. Rosanna Eugeni, P.Eng., at the annual convention of the Quebec professional Order of engineers (Ordre des ingénieurs du Québec – OIQ) in Montreal on May 6, 2019.
2. Three (3) hour course on ADR for construction disputes given with Mr. Jean-Claude Champagne, P.eng., to the Quebec Ministry for Municipal Affairs, Quebec city, May 1st, 2019.
3. One-day training to selected adjudicators being part of IMAQ’s fourteen (14) professionals roster set up in order to intervene in the projects designated by the Quebec Treasury Board as part of its pilot project for prompt payment and adjudication process on public construction projects as per its decree number 2018-01 of July 2018.
4. Lecturer for four (4) construction ADR courses to engineering students within a graduate course in management (GES 827) at the École de technologie supérieure de Montréal (ÉTS), Fall 2017 and 2018.
5. Advance commercial mediation training and awareness program delivered to the Centre d’Arbitrage, de Médiation et de Conciliation de Ouagadougou (CAMC-O) in Burkina Faso in December 2010. This project is a collaboration between the Institut de médiation et d’arbitrage du Québec (IMAQ), Éducadroits International and the Université de Sherbrooke who were chosen by the International Finance Corporation (World Bank Group) following an international call for tenders.
6. Mediator and member of a jury panel with two judges and the director of the ADR program for the International Pleading and Mediation contest entitled « Les 48 heures du droit de la santé » organized by the Faculty of Law of the Université de Sherbrooke and which takes place for the first time on the American continent.
7. 3 hour course in mediation of construction disputes given within the construction law masters course at the Faculty of Law of Laval University in Quebec city, on December 7, 2009.

8. Two week training, in May 2009, for the arbitrators (30), mediators/conciliators (40) and staff (10) of the Centre d'arbitrage, de médiation et de conciliation (CAMEC) of Cotonou, in Benin. This program resulted from a partnership between the Université de Sherbrooke and Éducadroits International, in collaboration with the faculty of law and political science of the Abomey-Calavi University of Cotonou, following an international request for proposals from the Millenium Challenge Account-Benin (MCABenin).

9. Commercial mediation training in Senegal provided by the Institut de médiation et d'arbitrage du Québec (IMAQ) and the Université de Sherbrooke in partnership with Dakar's Centre d'Arbitrage de Médiation et de Conciliation and the faculty of law from the University of Dakar. Mr Pisapia was one of the four trainers with Mr. Jean Marois, president of IMAQ, and professors Marquis and Roberge, respectively Vice-chancellor for international affairs and Director of the ADR program from the University of Sherbrooke. Attending the 5 day program in April 2008 were some 50 participants, including representatives from the Department of Justice, the Judiciary, Dakar's Bar and directors of Senegal's main economic agencies and corporations.

10. Two-day course on the drafting of claims given through Consultants Formation et Gestion for the benefit of the Corporation des entrepreneurs généraux du Québec, (Gatineau, January 2006).